JESS hereby deserves a full page THANK YOU!

For making ~~absolutely~~ toast. (which Ian's just ~~knicked~~ nicked).

The toast was great. Ian's trying to down 2 bottles of Smirnoff Ice, drank gently from his pewter tankard. He's sooo manly!!

Story-telling from Durham past is the pastime of the moment: Mid-Mad; police cars; scary physics guy; the necessity of further maths when reading maths at university, unless studying physics or engineering (basically Ian is a hero in the mathematical sense.) But certainly not in the what I feel like now sense - ~~next~~ day

9:20am

NOTE: NYE Ian does NOT ~~remember~~ remember having (5 pieces of) toast last night. Perhaps it was the 10 free beers, or the Smirnoff Ice he decided to 'down'.
